

Everyone has the right to broadcast whatever they want. If K-Love which broadcast through many translator stations through out the country has the frequency. Then it should be first come first serve you do not not do this to National Public Radio stations instead because I am tired of hearing left wing propaganda on the radio. As I say lets do away with this commison and let people duke it out like in the wild wild west.

Sincerely,

Mark K. Marion